

RCV PTA Meeting April 7, 2010

Meeting commenced at 7:11 in the Media Center with Meg Goodman, President presiding.

March minutes were approved.

Catherine Jasperse, Principal, mentioned that there will be a few staffing changes for RCV for the upcoming school year.

Tara Lawrence and Beth Molek have worked hard to update RCV's website. They have made it a more useful site and would like feedback from parents on their impressions.

Ms. Jasperse received no feedback concerning the bullying policy. She encourages parents to share any concerns they have and to know that she and Mrs. Halverstadt are here to help and problem solve with parents on such issues.

Meg Goodman, President, reported on the treasurer's report that we took in $593.00 for family fun night and budget wise we're looking good.

Colleen Anderson, First Vice President, Stream Clean-Up is approaching on Saturday from 9am – 1pm. Master gardener's toured the grounds of our school and determined that there needs to be a lot of mulching, weeding and spreading of compost.

Karen Halverstadt, Assistant Principal, mentioned that research is going to start on creating a butterfly garden. Earth Day will be on April 22nd and there will be a small assembly in the afternoon possibly outside in the amphitheater to educate and celebrate.

Catherine Jasperse, Principal, said that RCV will host students from Quince Orchard High School on April 19th for a cultural arts presentation using expressive signing called Music in Motion.

Elaine Parks, Clusters, reported that Roy Broussard will not return for the Rockville Cluster position due to health problems.

Sylvia Barnes, Scholastic Book Fair, will be April 26–30th, with reading night on the 27th.

International night will be Saturday, May 15th. The Talent Show will be Thursday May 13th.

The PTA will vote next month for open positions.

The KPCC before and after school care contract will come up for renewal either this September or the next September and there will be a school based committee created comprised of parents and teachers along with PTA input. There will be a questionnaire that will go out to similar programs and the committee will rank the top 5 bids.

Friday, April 23rd is Kindergarten orientation.

Elaine Parks, Reflections, reported that 2 students are going to the state level.

Meeting adjourned at 8:10.

Respectfully submitted,
Sylvia Lee, Recording Secretary RCV PTA
